The American Quilters Society is now hosting the Lancaster Quilt Show. The show has changed locations. It is now at the new Lancaster County Convention Center and Lancaster Marriott at Penn Square complex and the Liberty Place Conference Center. You can enjoy over 400 beautiful quilts entered in the show along with a special AQS exhibit. Such inspiration can't help to get your creative quilting juices going. Take some time to wander through the 300 vendor booths.

Evening Star Quilters' is organizing a bus trip to the show on Saturday, March 27, 2010. Guild members may attend for $55 and non-guild members for $65. The cost includes your bus trip, ticket for the show and a family style dinner at Plain and Fancy Restaurant. Fill out the form on the last page of the newsletter. Space is limited, so get your form and payment to Sue DeCamp as soon as possible.

Quilts of Love - Reminder

The Quilts of Love committee is excited to see all of your handiwork at the March Meeting. Seven baby quilts have been turned in at previous Guild meetings. They are so cute!

Please remember to bring your quilt(s) along with any bibs, burp clothes, diaper bags, etc. Thank you all for your hard work!

The committee has selected Birth Haven in Newtown, NJ, as the recipient for this year. This home provides shelter and transitional housing to homeless, pregnant women.

Mystery Quilt 2010

The weather didn't cooperate with the original date for the Mystery Quilt work day. It was rescheduled for February 27th. Look for the finished quilts at our upcoming meeting. If you missed this year's Mystery Quilt, keep your eye out for information next fall for the 2011 Mystery Quilt day. Special thanks to Lucy Kise for putting this all together for us.

Audrey Planer is selling New Jersey Barn Quilt calendars. They are $10 and feature the barns belonging to a few of our members.

Articles of interest or committee reports for the newsletter are welcome and appreciated. Please have any information to Debra Dockendorf (noahsark1983@verizon.net or 908.859.3102) by the 15th of each month. Thank you.
