A note from the President...

Spring is only 20 days away!

It's very hard to believe the New Year is already 2 months down. This has been a very long, snowy winter and has made all of us quilters very anxious about new projects. I'm sure the welcoming of spring will be a time to become greatly inspired!

We had a great meeting with Meg Cox last month. The trip to the Red & White Quilt show in NYC on March 26 should be a wonderful experience! Thank you to our guild for the bus!

Mystery Quilt 2011 was a blast! Thank you Lucy and Marlene...a fantastic time was had by all ☺

Sharon Kubich has planned some upcoming retreats – please see her for details and registering!

An exciting year is ahead with Hanky Challenge, Mystery BOM and of course, Harvest of Quilts 2011. It will be here before we know it~

Yours in Quilting,
Nancy Caryl Geiger

Bonnie McCaffery
Kaleidoscope Quilts
March 8

Bonnie McCaffery presents “Kaleidoscopes and the Many Possibilities”

Kaleidoscopes are fascinating. It's only natural that they are translated into quilts. In this slide lecture we'll see the many possibilities for kaleidoscope quilts as well as the techniques and design tips to create them.

A gentle reminder: Please mute your cell phones at the start of our monthly meetings ~ Thanks ☺
