A note from the President...

Happy New Year to all guild members and their families,

As we start 2011, we all resolve to complete our UFO's, clean out the sewing rooms and get organized. It is always a nice feeling to motivate and inspire ourselves and others.

I, myself, look forward to all the upcoming and ongoing projects we do within our guild. As it is, this month's newsletter will be a bit shorter due to no formal meeting in December.

Major job change for me and some computer glitches - - please, if I have forgotten anything in this month's notes, forgive me ☺ See you all on Tuesday!

Yours in Quilting, Nancy Caryl Geiger

~~~Please remember to check your Mail Folders at the monthly meetings ~ important info may be waiting

Meg Cox – January meeting location moved

Dawn has informed me that our January Meeting has been relocated to the Library.

Meg Cox is our special guest this month!

Hope to see you all there!

2011 Challenge – Hanky Panky

Our Hanky Panky should be well underway!
June is only 5 months away!

$$$$ Ways and Means $$$$

There were tons of prizes and loads of fun at our Holiday Party last month!

Thanks to everyone!!

AND

Thank you Irene! You make each month so fun!

Block of the Month

Angie and Lucy have arranged a mystery quilt “STEP” of the month.
The cost is $5.00 to participate. You will be given a supply list and cutting instructions followed by each step per month.

NOTE: There will still be the “Mystery Quilt” workshop held in February by Lucy. Actually 2 dates now!!

Optional sizes – Contrasting fabrics

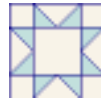

Hmmm...the mystery continues.....???

Looks to be a lot of fun! I hope many of you decide to sign up!

RAFFLE QUILT 2011

If you are having problems selling your raffle tickets, please return them to Lelane Hoose. Some members haven't received tickets yet. Selling so many tickets at the Fair and at Victorian Days plus giving 24 tickets (rather than the usual 18) to members meant that there were not as many tickets "left over" as usual. We will not be printing any additional tickets.

THANKS!
