ESQG Monthly Newsletter - November 2011

A note from the President...

Dear Ladies of the Evening Star Quilter's Guild,

We should be very proud of our recent efforts regarding our recent Harvest of Quilts show. All of the talent, hard work and camaraderie really shined through! I do believe we have been placed high on the map for future shows. 2013 ~ the best is yet to come!

With that said, we will now move on with our programs for the 2011-2012 guild year! Rosemary has an exciting line up of presentations and workshops for you. I would also like to apologize for the lack of newsletters over the past few months. Work and personal issues got in the way but I intend to continue this publication with my best effort going forward. Thank you all for your patience! You are all too kind :)

As we reach the 100 member mark and continue to grow, I must say I am proud to be a part of this sisterhood of stitchers. You have all changed my life in a positive way and I am truly happy to be a part of yours. Thank you from the bottom of my heart!

Have a Blessed Thanksgiving Holiday!

Yours in Quilting,
Nancy Caryl Geiger

Do you want to help make Quilts of Valor?

The Skylands QOV group has moved to Old Greenwich Church where we have space to work. We will meet once a month to cut fabric and make star block kits. We have a local long arm quilter and the Stewartville Grange will cover expenses.

We will meet Wed., Nov 2 from 10 - 2:30.

If you can help, call Trudy Frey - 908-454-1618 for directions to the church (near Rt 22 & 78) and supplies to bring.

Last year we received a letter from the Air Force Commander thanking us for the Quilts. She said it is very cold in the winter on the transport aircraft to Germany and they really appreciated the Quilts!

A gentle reminder: Please mute your cell phones at the start of our monthly meetings ~ Thanks ☺
