

EVENING STAR QUILTERS GUILD - THE STITCH LINE

ISSUE 2017, VOLUME 7

SEPTEMBER, 2017

A new quilting season has begun...

Greetings Evening Star Quilters!

Welcome to the 30th year of the Evening Star Quilters! I hope you are looking forward to a great year of celebrating traditions, our community, and one another.

In July 1976, while New Jersey was celebrating the bicentennial along with the rest of the nation, White Township hosted a quilt show featuring the family quilts of Jane Schreffler and her grandmother-in-law, Leafy Barbara Wenzel.

As a result of this show, a small group of women met together and planned a weekly “quilting bee.” These women began a friendship based on a shared interest in quilting. No one guessed when they began their first quilt top, that their stitches would also secure lifelong friendships and continue the tradition of quilting in the lives of well over 200 women (and a few men!). They originally named themselves “The Piecemakers” and met weekly, sharing stitches as well as desserts... some things never change.

By September 1987, the group consisted of 12 local women. As membership grew following a small quilt show that year, Evening Star Quilter’s was born! 30 years later, Evening Star Quilters Guild is still a driving force. Within those 30 years, the guild has produced numerous raffle quilts, mystery quilts, block of the month programs, workshops, friendship quilts, challenge quilts, and charity projects. We have hosted 14 quilt shows, many guest speakers, bus trips, and even a performing arts group!

The new board and I are looking forward to seeing everyone at the September meeting.

President: Cynthia Smith

Vice President: Irene Compton

Secretary: Carol Smith

Treasurer: Dixie Sutton

Historian: Rich Danner

We hope you had an enjoyable summer and you are ready for a fabulous year with the guild.

Changes in Board Positions

Pat Howlin has resigned as Vice President due to her husband's recent health issues. The executive board met on Tuesday, August 29, and appointed Irene Compton as Vice President for the current year, pursuant to Article IV, Section 1 Paragraph 5, that allows the Executive Board to appoint members to unexpired terms.

The board also approved Carol Smith to the position of Secretary, replacing Irene Compton.

The next ESQG Board meeting is Tuesday, November 28th at 6:30 pm at Irene Compton’s home.

Warren County Fair – 2018

We are looking for 2 people to co-chair the Warren County Fair committee as representatives from our guild. This position needs to be filled by January 2018. Please notify a board member if you are interested.

Quilt of Valor Blocks

Laura Lyman has stepped down as coordinator of our local Quilts of Valor program. Rich Danner has volunteered to continue Laura's tremendous work. Thank you, Rich!

Block of the Month

Irene Compton has volunteered to coordinate this year's Block of the Month program. In keeping with the anniversary theme, we will be using 30's reproduction prints each month with off-white background fabric.

If you would like to participate in Block of the Month, start collecting fabric now and be ready when Irene releases the first pattern!

Mystery Quilt

Marlene Marlowe and Leana McCutcheon are already planning the February Mystery Quilt! Stay tuned for more information!

Row Quilt

Theresa Schoonover will be coordinating a Row Quilt project this year. If you've never participated in a Row Quilt, you'll want to be a part of this. Theresa will have details at the September Guild meeting. Anyone interested in participating, please speak with Theresa.

Quilt Show

Quilt show registrations are due September 12th. Please be sure to include a photo and dimensions of your quilts. If you have more than ten quilts to enter, please number the forms in order of importance. If we run short on space, the higher numbers will be withdrawn or displayed elsewhere, if room permits. If you are unsure if a quilt will be complete by show-time, please register it now. It is easier to remove a quilt than it is to add one. No registrations will be accepted after September 12th.

A bin will be available at the meeting to collect all registration forms. Any questions, feel free to contact Cindy Smith or Theresa Schoonover.

Sandy Behsman is collecting donations of fat quarters for the raffle basket for the quilt show in October. Pat Howlin is collecting eyeglass cases for the demo gifts. Pat sends out her thanks to all who've already made so many beautiful cases. Please bring your donations to the September Guild meeting.

There are a number of members that have not signed up to work at the quilt show. Please be prepared at the September and October Guild meetings to sign up.

Also 'Mark Your Calendar' for October 21st and 22nd to be at the Belvidere High School. We are looking for 100% participation!

Please remember to bring the following items to the September 12th Guild meeting:

One or two quilts from guild programs

Fat quarters for donations to Quilt Show raffle basket

Eyeglass cases for Quilt Show demo gifts

Donation item for the Charitable Creations table for the Haven of Hope kids (quilt show charity auction)

Quilt Show registration forms

Membership forms, Membership dues and, of course, a desire to have a fabulous time!

Carol Smith is looking for volunteers to wash and iron four muslins each. These can be picked up at the September Guild meeting and brought to the quilt show in October.

Saturday Sewing at the Church
