

Thread sites--websites to visit!

Please be sure to visit these trendsetters (just a few are listed) and patronize their shops! It takes money and time to develop patterns!

Pattern Bee: www.patternbee.com

Mary Corbett at : <http://www.needlenthread.com/>

Bumpkin Hill at Etsy: <https://www.etsy.com/shop/bumpkinhill>

Urban threads at : www.Urbanthreads.com

Follow the White Bunny: <http://www.followthewhitebunny.com/>

Wellington House Design: <https://www.etsy.com/shop/WellingtonHouseDesig>

Tamar: <https://www.etsy.com/shop/TamarNahirYanai?ref=l2-shopheader-name>

Country Garden: <https://www.etsy.com/shop/countrygarden?ref=l2-shopheader-name>

Some free websites to find antique and vintage patterns:

Visit Martha's wonderful blog at: <http://qisforquilter.com/>

Antique Pattern Library (if you use it, please donate something to keep the site going!)

<http://www.antiquepatternlibrary.org/>

Flickr groups (flickr.Com) : Visit Hoop Love Vintage Transfers and New Embroidery with Vintage Patterns groups for free transfers and great ideas

Explore Pinterest for even more uses of embroidery and quilting. Try different terms such as "embroidered inchies" or "mixed media embroidery" or "zakka embroidery."

Most of all, HAVE FUN!!!

*****

Michele McLaughlin
Quilt Programs and Research
Allentownquilter@gmail.com